Two Duxbury men were arrested in connection with a burglary spree Tuesday morning.

Duxbury Police officers responded to the report of a burglar alarm activation at Dunkin Donuts in Hall's Corner at 4 a.m. Tuesday. Upon arrival, officers found the shop had been broken into. Officer James Tougas located a man in the area on foot. A contractor working at Foodies Market approached the officers to report that the man being detained by police also entered Foodies, which was closed at the time. The man was confronted by the workers inside Foodies and fled.

A second suspect was found, along with a third burglary at Creative Concepts Interiors, which is located in the same area.

Griffin Roche, 21, and Justin Coonan, 23, both of Duxbury, were arrested and transported to the Duxbury Police Station for booking. Roche and Coonan were arraigned Tuesday at the Plymouth District Court on charges of three burglaries.
